

Kohola Eco carver/instructor Tonu Shane

@@@@@@@@@@@@@@@@

The Kohola Sculptures

Web: www.lff1.org/kohola

Email: jonlarsen99.jl@gmail.com

Phone: 415-435-3222

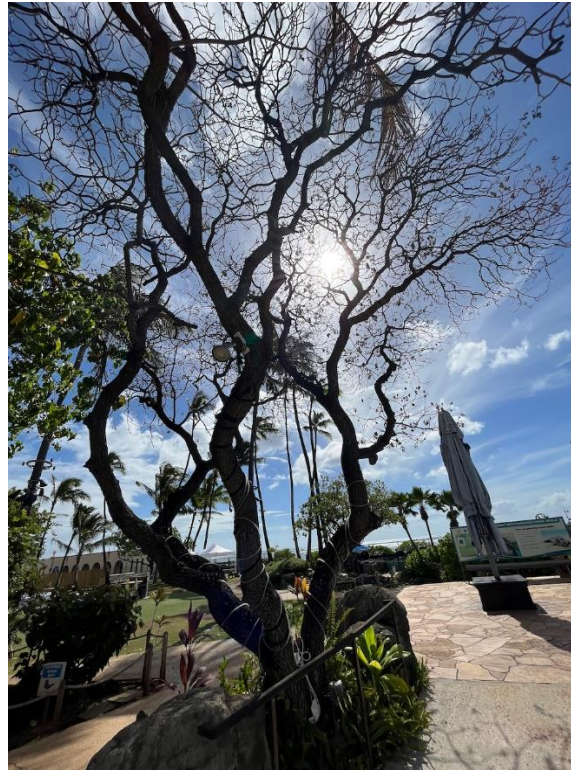

PO Box 751 Tiburon, CA 94920

---

Supported by the Jon and Karen Larson
Family Foundation
www.lff1.org

@@@@@@@@@@@@@@@@

---

"Marine Tree of Life"

Sculpture at The UH Waikiki Aquarium

Carved from a dead Beach Heliotrope (hinahina kū kahakai) tree trunk at the entrance to the Waikiki Aquarium

<https://www.waikikiaquarium.org/>

Koho Lā

"Towards the Light"

Heal All Life Sculptures

Healing Mother Earth
and Her Peoples,
through Aloha (Love),
Mālama (Caring),
and 'OHana (Family)

Beneath Bali Hai by George Sumner

PICA carvers were integral to the carving of the Kohola Healing Poles.

Youth of Monterey California carving the 9/11 One Voice Healing Pole in 2001 that was gifted to New York City in 2002.

800+ year old Yellow Cedar Kohola

One of the 30 crystal vessels holding blended waters gathered from 30 sacred places around the world for the United Nations 50th Anniversary Interfaith Service in San Francisco in June of 1995.

The First Peoples of California Healing Totem - Indian Canyon

The 9/11 One Voice Healing Pole installed at the Bronx Zoo in 2002

Mother Kohola and Keiki greeting the Hokule'a in San Francisco in 1995